The Courier, it will be seen, admits "the right of the Derectory under the charter to control the road as they see proper," but alleges that the Directory has "ceased to control the road." The Conrier rests its whole case and the whole case of Tennessee on this allegation. Is the allegation true? Usquestionably not. It is wholly untrue in the meaning usel.

We presume that the two horses which Floyd has given to Davis are not the ame two that he stele from Sam Burke, of Actroson county, Ky., hifteen or twenty years ago, for there must be getting a little old by this time. Perhaps some of Floyd's admirers would like to know how the old horse-thief managed his little operation with Burke. Well, he lay sick for several weeks in Burke's neighborhood, and, when he recovered and was about to start for his home in Virginia, he heard Burke say that he proposed selling a very fine pair of horses. "On, don't sell them here," said Floyd, "the me take them to Virginia, and I can immediately sell them for you at twice what they would bring here." Burke give his what they would bring here." The customhours at New Orleans, Mobile, Suvonnah Charleston, and other important points, containing vestameunts of government funds, have been treacherously apprepriated to sustain the cause of reledition. In like manner the brunch mints at New Orleans, at Charlette, and at Dahlonega, have been illegally seized, in detimes of every principle of common seized, in definee of every principle of counties bounded and of boner. The violent seizure of the United States Marine Hospital at New Grisans was only wanting to complete the catalogue of crime. The determination of the Government to use its atmost power to subdue the rebellion has been sustained by the unique lifed approval of the whole people. Horeicore, the leaders of this compiracy have professed to regard the people of this country as incepable of making a forcible resistance to rebellion. The error of this conclution is now being made manifest. History will record that men, who, in ordinaryllimes, were devoted solely to the arts of peace, were yet ready on the instant to rush to arms in defence of their rights when assailed. At the present moment the Government presents the striking anomaly of being embarraised by the generous outpouring of volumeers to sustain its action. A similar increase of the army, under like circumstances, was madd in 1812. At the close of the war, the force in service being found too large and too costly for a peace establishment, n reduction was ordered to be made, under the supervision of a board of officers specially organized for the purpose. At the close of the present struggle the reduction of the present force may be accomplished in like manner, if found then to be larger than the public necessities require. In making any such reduction, however, e just regard to the public interests would imperatively require that a force amply sufficient to protect all the public property, wherever it may be found, should be retained.

I cannot forbear to speak favorably of the volunteer system, as a sabstitute for a cumbrous and dangerous standing army. It has, heretofore, by many been deemed unreliable and inefficient in a sublen emergency, but actual facts have proved the centrary. If it be urged that the enemies of order have gained some slight eleventages at remote points, by reason of the absence of a sulficient regular force, the mexampled rapidity of coacentration of volunteers already witnessed is an ample refutation of the nrgmment. A government whose every citizen stands ready to march to its defence can never be overthrown; the seased is an ample refutation of the argument. A government whose every citizen stands ready to march to its defence can never be overthrown; for none is as strong as thet whese foundations rest immovably in the hearts of the people. The spectacle of mere than a quarter of a million of citizens rushing to the field in defence of the Constitution must over take rank among the most extraordinary facts of history. Its interest is vastly heightened by the lavish outpouring from States and indivibuous of voluntary contributions of money, reaching an aggregate thus far of more than ten millions of dollars. But a few weeks since the men composing this great earny were pursuing the avocations of peace. They gathered from the farm, from the workshop, from the farth, from the workshop, from the farth continues left luxuriant house for the tent and the camp. Native and foreign-born alike came forward with a kinded entities. It at a well-disciplined, homogeneous, and efficient from the camp man schools. Young wen of fortunes left luxuriant house for the tent and the camp. Native and foreign-born alike came forward with a kinded entities. But what is the settled for the common achools. Young wen of fortunes left luxuriant house for the tent and the camp. Native and foreign-born alike came forward with a kinded entities of the fold world. A more faced entities. But what is the actual fact Experienced men, who have had ample opportunitive to familiarize themselves with the soulding force of the Constitution and the laws it is stated eccendatione with a wave prudone and examined and the laws it is stated eccendatione with the fact of the constitution of the Constitution and the laws it is stated eccendatione with the fact of the constitution of the

One great of jection Io The present operations in idental surgery is their expense—at least where leeth have to be replaced. Young dentists who want practice are hyppy to flaw teeth in forma puppers. By an inverse application of the law, you must not look a gift horse in the mouth, The unlivery gratis patient who has a molar broken off short half way in the process of abstraction may be expected, if not to thank his executioner, at least to abstala from a personal assault. You may get your teeth drawe, every advirtises out in a Harrisburg paper. Peing there assault. You may get your toeth drawe, every one, for next te nothing, if not for nothing itself; but, when gape in the series have to be filled up, it is quite another thing. At present gold is required. CURRENT FACTS AND RUMORS.—The Privateers of the Savannah — It is stated, npon good anthority, that the pirates of the Savannah will see up the helter through Executive elemency, i tent to hing thom. Since the war opened, or enobellien broke out, our troops have taken numbers of the rebels in atmed resistance to the . S Government. Their crime is exactly derised by the laws and by the Constitution as eason and the punishment is death. Jet, setting under the orders of the President, General ing under the orders of the President, General Month of the relocated every one of those armed traitors and son them home.

So far, though spies have been taken on both sides, the unal practice under martial law has been waived by the Generals on the respective fides, and hanging has been dispensed with. The second reason is this if the Savannah privateers are hong, the Confederates will insteadly retained and hang all Northern prisoners in Their hands. We should be obliged to meet this act of cruelty by houging our prisoners, and thus the war would y hanging our prisoners, and thus the war would instantly become the most cruel and vindictive of persons in limitely connected with the govern-inent, and I give them as a port of current his-tory.
